

Outpatient treatment program for young adults with anorexia nervosa

The University of Sydney and the University of Chicago are conducting a research program designed to examine treatment for young adults with anorexia nervosa.

To be eligible:

- * Males and Females, age 18 - 25
- * Symptoms of anorexia nervosa
- * Have a 'family of choice' (e.g. parents, partner, close friend) who are willing to participate in the program

For more information contact: Rebecca Smith (Project Coordinator)
Phone: 9351 7329 or email: rebeccas@psych.usyd.edu.au

The University of Sydney
Australia

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO